CUPE 3902 (Unit 3) Job Posting

Innis One Program Sessional Lecturer Position (2017 Fall Session)

Course Title: INI100H1F The City Where Movies Are Made

Posting Date: May 4th, 2017

Closing Date: May 29th, 2017 @ 5pm

Course description: An introduction to film culture in Toronto from a variety of angles, including a history of the city onscreen (both as itself and as a popular shooting location for American productions); an account of major Toronto filmmaking sites and institutions; introductions to local directors and producers; and overviews of contemporary local film festival culture (TIFF and beyond), as well as the city's film-critical community. Through lectures, screenings, field trips and special guest speakers, the students will be moved to consider both the vitality of Toronto's film scene and its connections to other features of the city.
