

RESIDENT OCCUPANCY AGREEMENT

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the Governing Council of the University of Toronto (the "University") and the resident (the "Resident") agree as follows:

1. The University grants to the Resident a license to occupy a room (the "Room") in the residence located at 111 St. George Street (the "Residence") on the University of Toronto's St. George campus for a period (the "Occupancy Period") commencing on August 30, 2026 and ending at 3 pm on April 29, 2027 or 24 hours after the Resident's last exam of the winter session, whichever occurs first, unless extended later or terminated earlier pursuant to the provisions of this agreement. The last day of the Occupancy Period or the Effective Date of Termination under section 16 is herein called the "Vacating Date".
2. The Residence is closed for the December winter break. All residents are expected to vacate their room no later than 3 pm on December 22, 2026, or 24 hours after the Resident's last exam of the fall session, whichever occurs first, unless extended later or terminated earlier pursuant to the provisions of this agreement. The residence will re-open on January 9, 2027, at 10 am.
 - a. Residents who wish to stay in the Residence for any part of the winter break must apply before the stated deadline and pay an additional fee. Applications for winter break accommodation will be available by early November. Permission to remain in Residence through the winter break is subject to the Dean of Students (the "Dean") or their designate's approval and should not be considered automatic.
3. The Room and Room Type shall be assigned to the Resident by the Dean or their designate. The University reserves the right, to be exercised by the Dean or their designate acting reasonably, to substitute another room in the Residence for the Room at any time during the Occupancy Period, and the substituted room shall be deemed to be the Room for all purposes hereunder.
 - a. In the event that the Resident becomes the sole occupant of a double occupancy room,
 - i. the Resident may be transferred to another double occupancy room with a vacant bed space or,
 - ii. the Resident may remain as the sole occupant of a double occupancy room, in which event the Room shall be deemed as a single occupancy room for the remainder of the Occupancy Period and the Resident's Occupancy Fee will be prorated to a standard single room, as described in Appendix A, from the date of the change in room type to the end of the Occupancy Period.
4. Only full-time University of Toronto students who are enrolled in a minimum 3.0 FCEs, with a minimum of 3 courses in each of the Fall and Winter semesters, or comparable course load in a registered faculty, in good academic standing (minimum cumulative grade point average of 1.5) are eligible to reside in the Residence unless alternate arrangements have been approved in writing by the Dean or their designate. Students on ASIP, PEY, or co-op placement are determined to not meet the minimum criteria and therefore are not eligible to live in the Residence. Residents who withdraw from the University or drop below full-time status, or below 3 courses in either the Fall or Winter semesters, are required to inform the Office of the Dean of Students immediately. The college reserves the right to check the academic status of students to confirm eligibility for residence as required.
5. It is understood by the Resident that the residence facilities of the University of Toronto (the "University") are intended to promote and enhance the academic and intellectual development of its residents, their personal growth, and their involvement in campus life, and that accordingly, the atmosphere, environment, and behaviour in the Residence shall be conducive to and consistent with the achievement of these purposes.

6. The Resident will pay the Occupancy Fee as specified in Appendix A and any additional fees prescribed herein.
7. The Resident agrees to pay to the University any charges and/or fees that they incur as a result of the provisions contained within this agreement, including but not limited to service charges on any overdue payments at the rate published in the “Fees Schedule” of the University.

9. The Resident shall use the Room only as a private dwelling for themselves (and, if the Room is a Double Room, for another resident) and shall be entitled to use the kitchen, washroom(s), and living room facilities (the “Suite”) and common facilities of the Residence together with the other residents so long as the Resident continues to occupy the Room and complies with the terms of this agreement and the schedules thereto.
10. The University will:

 - b. maintain the Room, Suite, and the Residence in a reasonable state of repair and fit for habitation.
11. The Resident will:

The Resident agrees that posting of the Code of Behaviour that is current for the time being in a prominent place in the Residence, or emailing the revised document to the Resident, shall be deemed sufficient notice thereof to the Resident. Furthermore, the Resident acknowledges that it is the Resident’s responsibility to read and be familiar with this agreement and the Code of Behaviour.
13. With regards to locks and keys in the Residence:

- a. the Resident shall receive one residence ID card and key fob for the Residence. The Resident shall return the residence ID card and key fob to the University on or before the Vacating Date. The Resident will not duplicate or permit duplication or be in possession of a duplicate of the residence ID card or key fob, nor shall the Resident lend or give the residence ID card or key fob to anyone else. The Resident will be charged $100.00 for having a replacement key fob including, if applicable, a replacement residence ID card issued. The Resident will be charged $25.00 for having only a replacement residence ID card issued. Should a resident lock their key fob in their Room, the Resident may request that a temporary key fob be issued to them. The temporary key fob must be returned within 30 minutes of being issued, otherwise a $100 replacement key charge will be applied to their account.
- b. residents within a Suite will share one key to the mailbox for their Suite. Should this key be lost, a replacement key charge of $100 will be split equally among the Suite's residents. This key must be returned to the Suite on or before the Vacating Date.

The Resident shall not be in possession of a master key or any other key pertaining to the Residence without the explicit permission of the Dean or their designate.
- d. the Resident will not under any circumstances tamper with or change the lock or add a lock to the door of any room within the Residence including the bicycle storage area.
- e. after the Vacating Date, the University shall have the right to enter the Room and/or Suite and change the locks without notice or liability to the Resident and without providing the Resident with a key for the new lock. The University has no responsibility for any possessions of the Resident or of any other person left in the Room, the Suite, or the Residence after the Vacating Date. The University has the absolute right to dispose of such possessions after the Vacating Date without any liability to account to the Resident therefore.

14. The Resident will not:

- a. use the premises or permit them to be used other than as residential accommodation;
- b. paint or permanently alter the Room including any wall, ceiling, door, or surface of the Residence without the consent of the Dean or their designate;
- c. deface any wall, ceiling, or surface of the Residence, including the windows, or damage the Residence or its furnishings or permit their guests or invitees to do so;

- k. commit or permit an illegal act to be committed in the Residence; or
- l. violate any rules set out in this agreement or the Residence Code of Behaviour.

15. The Resident will:

- a. To foster safe and welcoming residence communities, all students living in residence are expected to complete a mandatory online sexual violence education and prevention training module (the “Module”).
 - i. Completion before move-in. As a condition of living in residence, students are expected to complete the Module prior to moving into the Residence.
 - ii. Extension. If the Resident is unable to complete the Module prior to move-in, the Resident will be permitted to move into the Residence on the condition that the Resident completes the Module within 14 days of their move-in date.
 - iii. Termination: The University reserves the right to terminate the Occupancy Agreement if the Resident does not comply with this requirement and upon exercising this right, the Resident will be required to vacate the Residence.
 - iv. Additional information: Questions or concerns about the Module may be directed to the Dean or their designate. The University may consider requests for an exemption to the requirement, in its sole discretion, provided that the request is made by the Resident to the Dean or their designate. Exemption requests should be made as soon as practicable for the Resident but no later than 3 days prior to move-in date in order to provide the University with sufficient opportunity to review the request and to discuss with the Resident, if necessary.
- b. complete a Room Inventory Form and submit it to the Residence if, on occupancy, the contents or fabric of the Room are not as described in the Room Inventory Form;
- c. report any damage to the Room, the Suite, or the Residence to the Dean or their designate immediately and will pay for the repair of any damage to the Room, the Suite, or the Residence or the furnishings thereof caused by the Resident or the Resident’s guests, normal wear and tear excepted, which repair shall be performed only by the University;

16. With regard to termination of this agreement:

- a. The University may at its option terminate this license upon the happening of any of the following events:
 - i. non-payment by the Resident of any amount due to the University;
 - ii. breach by the Resident of any other provision of this agreement, or the Code of Behaviour as published from time to time;

- iii. any event whereby the Resident ceases to be a full-time University of Toronto student who is enrolled in a minimum of 3.0 FCEs, with a minimum of 3 courses in each of the Fall and Winter semesters, or comparable course load in a registered faculty, in good academic standing (as defined in Section 4);
 - iv. in accordance with Section 33.
- b. In the event that the University exercises its option to terminate this license, the University or its designated official shall give written notice of such termination to the Resident, which notice shall specify the effective date of the termination, which shall be not less than three days following the giving of the notice (the “Effective Date of Termination”). The notice may be emailed, hand delivered to the Room or affixed to the door of the Room, addressed to the Resident.
 - c. Notwithstanding paragraph (b), under exceptional circumstances, the University reserves the right, to be exercised by the Dean or their designate acting reasonably, to give written notice of termination of this license not less than 24 hours before the Effective Date of Termination.
 - d. Notwithstanding the early termination of this license, the Resident shall at the option of the University be liable for payment of the full amount of the Occupancy Fee, whether or not the room is re-occupied or the Residence is filled.
 - e. The Resident will vacate the Room and remove all possessions there from before 10 am on the Vacating Date, and has no vested right to occupy the Room, the Suite, or the Residence in the future.
17. The resident shall take possession of the assigned room and check in to residence no later than the first day of class (September 8, 2026). Failure to take possession of the room, unless written notice of intent to take possession of the room after this date is received, will be considered as termination by the resident.
- a. For the Winter term of residence, if the Resident does not take possession of and occupy the Room within seven (7) days of the winter term residence re-open date (refer to Section 2), the Room reservation and this license are automatically forfeited and cancelled, and the University may license the Room to another resident forthwith, without notice to the Resident. Additionally, the deposit(s) will be forfeited (refer to Appendix A) and the Resident will not be eligible for a refund of the Occupancy Fee. Any exception to this deadline must receive prior written permission from the Dean or their designate.
18. In the event that the Resident elects to cancel and/or withdraw from residence, the Resident shall give the Residence written notice by emailing residence.innis@utoronto.ca. The financial implications of cancellation and/or withdrawal from the residence are included in Appendix A.
19. The Resident will not keep any firearm, weapon, explosive, or replica weapons of any kind, and/or animal (including but not limited to reptile, insect, bird, or fish) in the Room, the Suite, or the Residence.
20. The Resident will ensure that all furnishings listed on the Room Inventory Form must not be moved from the Room, the Suite, or the Residence without written permission from the Dean or their designate.
21. The Resident will not assign this agreement or sub-license this Room or the Suite or any part thereof to another or otherwise part with the possession or occupancy of the Room or the Suite.
22. University staff, which include, but are not limited to the Dean or their designate, Dons, and Facilities staff shall be permitted to enter the Room during daylight hours upon giving reasonable notice to the Resident, and at regular intervals if previously announced to the residents, or at any time, and without notice, in the event of an emergency or perceived emergency, or a disturbance or breach or suspected breach of the Residence Code of Behaviour, in order to examine the state of the Room, including the state of sanitation, safety, and repair thereof, and to make such repairs, changes, or improvements to the Room and its furnishings as the University may deem necessary or desirable.

23. Residential buildings are occasionally subject to pest outbreaks, including but not limited to, bedbugs. If a pest outbreak is suspected, residents are required to immediately contact the Residence staff so an inspection can be arranged. If the presence of pests is confirmed, residents will be required to actively participate in the treatment by following the directives of the University and/or professional pest control workers. To reduce the likelihood of spreading pests to unaffected areas, residents will not be relocated to a new room. No refund or reduction of fees will be issued to those who are inconvenienced by pest inspection or remediation processes.
24. The University reserves the right, to be exercised by the Dean or their designate acting reasonably, to substitute another room in the Residence for the Room at any time during the Occupancy Period, in which event the substituted room shall be deemed to be the Room for all purposes hereunder and the Resident shall forthwith move to that other Room.
25. Room changes may be accommodated based on available space and are processed at the discretion of the Dean or their designate. Room change requests must be made in writing to the University. Submission of a room change request does not guarantee a room change. A service fee of $200 is charged for the processing of a room change.
26. From time to time, the Dean or their designate may release limited resident information under controlled circumstances to approved third parties, for the specific purpose of facilitating resident voting in federal, provincial, municipal, or student society elections.
27. It is agreed that there shall be no reduction of fees or any other compensation for or on account of any loss, damage, inconvenience, or discomfort arising from the interruption or curtailment, of any accommodation, facility, or service agreed to be furnished by the University, except, in cases of gross negligence or suspension of service, reasonable compensation will be negotiated with the Residents.
28. The University shall not be liable to the Resident for any damage to or loss or theft of personal property or for personal injury, including death, on the Residence property save where the same is caused by willful or negligent act or omission of the University or those for whom the University is in law responsible. The Resident will indemnify the University and save it harmless from any and all liability in respect of any injury, loss, or damage occasioned by any act or omission of the Resident, the Resident's guests, agents or invitees.
29. The Resident acknowledges that the Residence is located within a major urban centre and, as a result, there may be noise, construction, local events, and other disturbances over which the University has no control that may impact the occupants of the building. From time to time, maintenance and/or renovation of the Residence occurs and may necessitate limited access to the Room and/or the Suite. No refund or reduction of fees will be issued to those who are inconvenienced by such disturbances.

During the academic year, there is on-going construction on several buildings in our precinct, which may significantly and directly impact the Innis College Residence:

The Woodsworth Academic Tower is a 5-storey building that will be constructed directly to the north of the Residence on the south end of the Woodworth College Academic building at 119 St. George Street. Residents on the north side of the Residence may be most directly impacted, however the impacts may be felt throughout the residence, regardless of room placement. As part of this work, the laneway behind the Residence may be hoarded off or have one end closed at various times during the project. As a result, there may be noise, dirt, and other construction-related effects.

The Innis College expansion is located across the street from the Residence and will be under construction during the year, and may cause considerable construction noise, dust, dirt and other construction effects on our residents.

Within the Residence there will be renovations taking place to upgrade the lobby area. This may cause considerable construction noise, vibration, dust, dirt, and other construction effects on our residents. While accessibility will be maintained, there may be temporary changes to entryways, elevator access, and front desk services. Residents in the suites surrounding the renovation may be most directly impacted; however, the impacts may be felt throughout residence, regardless of room placement.

All this surrounding construction means that the Residence may be greatly affected by noise, dirt/dust, and general lack of privacy and construction site conditions, including ones that we may not anticipate.

Innis Residence will adhere to any public health measures, guidelines, or legislation. It may be necessary to restrict access to building amenities, services, and/or guest registration.

There will be no compensation or reduction in residence fees for any suites/rooms affected by any of the aforementioned conditions.

30. The Resident acknowledges that, during any prior stay at any residence at the University of Toronto, the Resident's Occupancy Agreement (or any contract that the place of accommodation uses as an agreement between them and the Resident, for the space provided to the Resident) was not terminated for any violation of its provisions.
31. As the living accommodation is provided by the University of Toronto to its students or staff, all major questions relating to the living accommodations are decided after consultation with a council within the Residence and, the living accommodations are not intended for year-round occupancy or living accommodation and do not contain their own self-contained bathroom and kitchen facilities, the residence is exempt from the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (RTA) based on S. 5 (g) of the RTA.
32. If the license becomes impossible to perform by either party due to acts of God, war, government regulations, pandemic, disaster, strikes, civil disorder, curtailment of transportation facilities, or other emergencies making it illegal or impossible to provide the facilities, this Agreement may be terminated for any one or more of such reasons by written notice from one party to the other provided that the reason for said termination is in effect in Toronto or the immediate surrounding area and is in effect within 30 days prior to the Resident's arrival date.
33. Emergencies and other Unavoidable Events
 - a. An "Emergency" means a health emergency or other unavoidable event which is beyond the reasonable control of the University, which results in a situation in which the University determines in its sole discretion, based on advice from a medical professional, or a directive, bulletin, notice or other form of communication, order or legislation from a public health authority or other authority having jurisdiction, or other information or advice deemed relevant by the University ("Directives"), that a Resident, employees of the University or other persons or invitees, are or may be exposed to imminent danger from a dangerous condition or situation, damage to the Residences, disease, virus or other biological or physical agents that may be detrimental to human health, while in the Residences.
 - b. If an Emergency exists, the University may amend, supplement or otherwise enforce any rules or regulations in existence, may impose additional rules and regulations, and may impose restrictions to mitigate or minimize the effects of the Emergency. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing:
 - i. during an Emergency, the University shall be entitled to restrict or limit access to Residences to employees of the University only, and/or to prohibit entry by a Resident, visitors or invitees for a reasonable period of time during such event;

- ii. notwithstanding that the University may have entered into an Occupancy Agreement with a Resident, the University shall have the right during an Emergency, to terminate such agreements prior to the commencement of the Occupancy Period, in order to comply with Directives or where the University determines that it will not be safe to operate Residences for a Fall and/or Winter Semester, and the University shall have no liability to a Resident as a result of such termination;
 - iii. the University shall be entitled during an Emergency to close all or any part of the Residences if it determines that it is not safe to continue to operate the Residences or certain parts thereof, in which case a Resident shall vacate the Room they occupy in accordance with the reasonable requirements of the University;
 - iv. the University shall be entitled, during such time as there is an Emergency to require all Residents to comply with reasonable measures imposed in respect thereof by the University, including health screening, the use of hand washing and other sanitation products directly related to the management of the health threat, attendance at mandatory training sessions, and the use of additional protective clothing by all Residents such as protective barriers, gloves and masks; and
 - v. during an Emergency, the University shall also be entitled to specify specific modes of entry and exit from and to the Residences for Residents generally or Residents who may have a heightened risk of either exposure to a health threat or a heightened risk of transfer of unhealthy condition to other Residents, invitees or visitors in the Residences.
- c. Where an Emergency or any other restrictive governmental laws or regulations, fire, damage, or other unavoidable event which is beyond the control of the University, results in the closure of a Residences during the Occupancy Period, the University, in its sole and absolute discretion shall determine what, if, any fees shall be refunded to the Resident, having regard to the length of the closure, the nature of the event causing the closure and such other factors as the University deems appropriate in the circumstances.
34. This agreement and the Code of Behaviour constitute the entire agreement between the parties and there are no representations, warranties, collateral agreements or conditions affecting the Room or the Suite or this agreement except as expressed herein, as amended from time to time.
